Practices

Competition &
 Regulatory

Martina advises clients on all aspects of Finnish and European Union competition law. Martina has extensive international experience and has represented clients before the European Commission and Nordic Competition Authorities. Martina has also represented clients in cartel proceedings before the European Commission and regularly advises clients on the application of the abuse of dominance rules. Prior to joining Krogerus, Martina worked for a global law firm and for the Finnish Competition and Consumer Authority (FCCA). At the FCCA, her work covered landmark antitrust investigations and merger control across a broad range of industries, including financial services, construction, daily consumer goods retail and agriculture.

Martina frequently advises domestic and international clients on foreign direct investment (FDI) and foreign subsidies regulation (FSR).
