10 RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

The data subject has the right to receive confirmation from the data controller as to whether or not personal data concerning the data subject are being processed, or whether personal data has been processed.

The data subject is entitled to receive a copy of the processed personal data and the personal data undergoing processing.

Whether the data subject makes the request by electronic means and he or she has not requested it by any other means, the information shall be provided by electronic means.

The data subject has also the right to obtain from the controller the rectification or erasure of personal data concerning him or her and the data subject has the right to prohibit the processing of personal data for direct marketing purposes.

In certain cases, the data subject has also the right to request from the controller restriction of processing of personal data or otherwise object to processing. Furthermore, the data subject may require the transmission of the personal data, which he or she has provided to the controller in a machine-readable format based on the GDPR.

All requests mentioned here shall be provided to the above-mentioned contact person of the controller.

Whether the data subject finds the processing of his or her personal data unlawful, he or she has the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.

11 RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT

Where processing of personal data of the data subject is based on consent, the data subject shall have the right to withdraw his or her consent. However, the withdrawal of consent may affect the usability and functionality of the service in question.

The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

12 THE PROTECTION OF THE REGISTER

The location and protection of the equipment for storing documents has been carefully maintained and the documents are stored in a secured space. The access control at the premises has been appropriately arranged.

The right to access to the documentation is within the personnel of Krogerus, who have the obligation of confidentiality.
